

At the center of every great city is a great downtown.

San Antonio's downtown is blessed with extraordinary people, traditions and cultures.

But its greatness is yet to be achieved.

Look around.

Tall buildings and bustling businesses contrasted by vacant spaces and empty store fronts just steps away from our beloved Alamo and River Walk.

Our downtown is the heart and soul of our community.
We must embrace it and make it great.

It's time to seize the moment!

Today, the sun is shining on our city,
And with every new dawn, our city rises.

People with hopes, dreams and aspirations who can come together to make our downtown the best it can be.

People with ambition, creativity, pride... and a commitment to action.

If you believe that at the center of every great city is a great downtown, join us.
